

Khmer Translations – Team Profile

The Khmer Translators team provides you with reliable, accurate and high quality translations in the Khmer language. Our accomplished linguists provide comprehensive services and are capable of interpretations, proofreading, editing and transcription projects for any individual, legal or business purposes.

Translation experts who understand the language

Our team is a collective group of legal interpreters, public service officers, translators and teachers, with many years of excellent experience as industry professionals. We are certified, hold college degrees and are well versed in Khmer as native speakers and keep ourselves adapted to the speaking community and cultures of Cambodia. Because of this, we are updated to the current trends and usage of the language.

Quality translations guaranteed

The Khmer Team is well versed in Khmer to English and vice-versa in all areas of reading, speaking, listening and writing. We have the ability to interpret and translate papers, technical documents, contracts and treaties, manuals, meeting minutes, websites as well as legal instruments. Our translated texts are both consistent and credible, as our documents are well researched and confirmed for accuracy. We value your privacy and confidentiality of these materials is assured.

This is where the Khmer Team comes in

We work with a number of industries, including finance, education, government, technology and legal – all of which benefit independently from our translation services. Khmer Translations are precise and appropriate, while maintaining integrity to both languages. Our network core is based on expertise, and our reputable specialists bring sophisticated knowledge, communication and relationship to your project.

Using the combined skills and practice of our Khmer Translators team, you can rely on the complete services we can provide to you or your organization.
