

Khmer Translations – Team Profile

The Khmer Team provides you with reliable, accurate and high quality translations in the Khmer language. Our accomplished linguists provide comprehensive services and are capable of translating, proofreading, editing and transcription projects for any individual, legal or business purposes.

Translation experts who understand the language

Our team is a collective group of legal translators, trained public service officers, editors and teachers, with many years of excellent experience as industry professionals. We are certified by professional organizations, hold college degrees and are native speakers in Khmer. We keep ourselves adapted to the community and cultures of Cambodia to maintain the fundamentals of the language. Because of this, we are updated to the current trends and usage of Khmer in conversation and print.

Quality translations guaranteed

The Khmer Team is well versed in Khmer to English and vice-versa in several competent areas. We translate, proofread and edit papers, technical documents, contracts and treaties, manuals, meeting minutes, reports, contracts, as well as legal instruments. We also execute voice-over work. Our translated texts are both consistent and credible, as our documents are well researched and verified for accuracy. We value your privacy, and confidentiality of these materials is assured.

This is where the Khmer Team comes in

We work with a number of industries, including finance, business, education, government, technology and legal – all of which benefit independently from our translation services. The Khmer Team is precise and appropriate, while maintaining integrity to both languages. Our network core is based on expertise, and our reputable specialists bring sophisticated knowledge, communication and connection to your project.

Using the combined skills and practice of our Khmer Team, you can rely on the complete services we provide to you or your organization.
